Sabbatical Grants for Researchers

Letter of Recommendation

Please return to the address above by November 1.

Applicant Name: _____

Title of Proposed Project: _____

The Louisville Institute offers grants to support research by scholar/pastors and scholar/educators that strengthens the religious life of North American Christians and their institutions while simultaneously advancing American religious and theological scholarship.

The Sabbatical Grant for Researchers Program supports research and writing projects by researchers and scholars that will advance religious and theological scholarship in ways that also address practical issues concerning Christian faith and life, pastoral leadership, and/or religious institutions.

We would appreciate your candid appraisal of the proposed project, the candidate, and his or her capacity to conduct the project successfully. Please sign and attach this form to your recommendation letter, printed on your institutional letterhead. Thank you for your assistance.
